CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

MR. AND MRS. R. L. HOLLAND OF ARDEN AVENUE ARE WEDDED 23 YEARS

INDOOR PICNIC HELD

REFRESHMENTS, STORY TELLING AND AUCTION BRIDGE ATTRACTIONS

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Holland of 209 Arden avenue were the host and hostess to a number of their friends at an informal party given at their home yesterday in celebration of their 23rd wedding anniversary. The party was in the form of an indoor picnic. The rooms were decorated with pepper boughs to represent the woods, and the guests were attired in sport clothes, flannels and khaki predominating. Lunch was served in real picnic fashion. While the refreshments were being served the guests were called upon to relate their experiences at picnics they had attended or to give a conundrum. A vote was then taken and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Allured were awarded prizes for having related the best stories. A large wedding bell had been hung in the living room, and immediately following lunch the wedding march was played by Mrs. Allured, and Mr. and Mrs. Holland, preceded by Mrs. Sallie Braden and Robt. Holland, marched into the living room and took their places under the wedding bell, where they received the congratulations of their friends.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Osborne, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Scott Allured, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Russell, of Hollywood; Mrs. Sallie Campbell Braden, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Worley, the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Holland, and their son Robert.

WED IN NORTH

GLENDALE BUSINESS MAN TAKES ALHAMBRA GIRL AS BRIDE

Friends of Lanier Bartlett, of the local automobile firm of Bartlett & French, will learn with pleasurable surprise of his marriage in San Francisco, last Saturday to Mrs. Virginia Nielsen, of Alhambra.

The wedding took place at the home of friends of the bride, whom she was visiting. After a wedding journey of three or four weeks Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett will be at home in their pretty Eagle Rock home, now in the course of construction.

Mrs. Bartlett is said by Glendale friends who have met her to be a lady of charming personality, who will be warmly welcomed in Glendale social circles.

Amusements for Boys

The recent discussions on the question of providing wholesome amusements for the boys of the city has aroused widespread interest. Dr. C. M. Crist, one of the men who has been very much interested in this civic problem, has given the subject much thought, and with the sentiment of his members behind him, is lending powerful aid in determining the character of amusement calculated to be uplifting. With this end in view he is substituting for the regular prayer-meeting tonight addresses by two men of note on the subject, "What About the Boys—How to Get Them," illustrated with stereopticon slides. These addresses will bear on the local problem. The meeting will be held in the Sunday school room of the First M. E. church.

ALL RED CROSS WORKERS READY

ORGANIZATION FOR FOURTH ANNUAL ROLL CALL IS COMPLETE

TO AID LOCAL WORK

HALF OF DOLLAR MEMBERSHIPS REMAINS FOR USE OF HOME CHAPTER

Calls upon the local Red Cross Chapter are frequent and urgent and the annual roll call, which will begin tomorrow, will relieve the chairman, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, from any anxiety as to the ability of the Glendale Chapter to continue its service to the city and state.

One-half of the money from the dollar memberships remains for the use of the Glendale Chapter. Four dollars out of every five dollars and eight out of every ten-dollar subscription also remains here.

The Chapter, this summer, has spent $240 for material for layettes which were made up by Glendale members; $100 was spent for clothing for soldiers in a California hospital and $200 was lately spent in Home Service.

Headquarters will be maintained during the Roll Call at the Glendale Savings Bank, Brand and Broadway.

Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward, who is in charge of the roll call, announces the appointment of the following workers:

General Committee
Mrs. O. H. Belew, Mrs. Allen Fairchild, Miss Eva Daniels, Miss Esther Jones, Mr. C. Cushing, Los Feliz Rd., Branch Library.

Acacia, Mrs. L. G. Scovern, Helen M. Hazard.

Arden, Mrs. F. S. Balthis.

South Adams, Mrs. Paul Mertens, Mrs. W. W. McElroy.

Belmont, Mrs. Ed Lee, Miss Brockman, Mrs. A. V. Tarling and nieces.

North Brand, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Mrs. Jennie Phillips, Mrs. Frank Ayars, Mrs. E. K. Barnes.

Record Price for Eggs

The wholesale price of eggs this morning on the produce exchange was $6 for select, those weighing 22 ounces and over to the dozen; 74 for pullets, 18 to 21 ounces, and 58 for pewee pullets, those weighing less than 18 ounces to the dozen. These are believed to be the highest prices ever known for eggs in California. Last year at this time the price for select was 78 cents a dozen. The high price of feed, the scarcity of storage eggs, the depletion of the number of hens and light laying are given as reasons for these record high prices.

NEW DIRECTORY

CANVASS FOR NAMES COMPLETED—AID ASKED IN GETTING NAMES MISSED

Every street in Glendale, North Glendale and Casa Verdugo has been gone over by enumerators for the new directory. In a number of places there was no one at home when calls were made. The Evening News is desirous that every man, woman and child shall be listed in this new directory and to this end urges that families who have been missed by the enumerators promptly report to the office, 139 South Brand, phone Glendale 132, either by letter, phone or in person, giving the full name of the man of the house, if living, first name of wife, and names of children in order of their ages, writing names very plainly if the mail is used; where children are over high school age, the occupation of each should be given. Always give the full name of the head of the house, man or woman, first, and occupation, if any. Be sure to give correct street number, also, in every case.

If you know that any of your neighbors have been missed or even suspect that they have, will you not kindly call their attention to this notice, if they are not subscribers of the Evening News? By this cordial co-operation we feel sure every name can be listed and Glendale's population be thereby accurately determined.

TUESDAY CLUB HOLDS MEETING

PLANS FOR COMING BAZAAR DISCUSSED AND FORWARDED

DONATIONS INVITED

STEREOPTICON VIEWS SHOWN AND BEAUTIFUL SONGS RENDERED

The Tuesday Afternoon Club held its regular meeting Tuesday, November 9, at 2:30 p. m., in Masonic Temple with Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president, in the chair. Mrs. A. W. Tower, general curator, announced the meeting dates of the various sections which are open to all members. In the absence of the vice president, Mrs. C. H. Temple, Mrs. Hutchinson spoke of the coming bazaar to aid in payment on the lots and announced the sections which are to have the various booths in charge as follows:

Fancy work, Music and Shakespeare Sections; dolls, Philanthropy; handicraft, calling and courtesy committee; cooked food, hospitality committee; aprons and holders. Literary Section; light luncheons, decorating committee; candy, juvenile court committee, and goose, Mrs. J. T. Crampton. Members and friends were invited to donate according to their desire to this committee. Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, chairman of Civics, thanked the members for their co-operation in helping to carry the bonds for the civic center. Mrs. Hutchinson requested that members driving machines observe the city parking ordinance and allow free entrance to the hall. The legislative and parliamentary drills were held in the hall for thirty minutes prior to meeting. Mrs. Lillian Dow announced the Red Cross roll call, which she stated was a renewal of allegiance to the Red Cross, which is being valuable work.

Before the opening of the program the audience sang "America," Mrs. Rosecoe Puffer acting as accompanist. Mrs. Hutchinson introduced Rev. Louis Agassiz Gould, who gave a lecture illustrated with stereopticon views of the three-hundredth anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims. Mrs. Natalie Hall of Glendale, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. A. W. Beach, gave a group of old-fashioned songs in costume which were rendered in charming manner as follows: "The Lass With a Delicate Air"; "Tis the Last Rose of Summer," and "Comin' Through the Rye."

The floral decorations were red and green in coloring and American flags of many sizes were the predominant feature.

Aeroplane Mishap

A slight aeroplane mishap occurred last Sunday when Mr. Tapie, student of G. G. Budwig, who is the aeroplane pilot for L. C. Brand, was attempting to alight after having taken a passenger on a short flight. When Mr. Tapie attempted to land his plane he became confused on account of being close to the telephone wires. Because of flying so close to the ground, Mr. Tapie was unable to raise the plane to escape hitting the wires and was forced to land in the lemon orchard. The lower wing and one of the wheels was broken, but the motor was not damaged. Neither the passenger nor the pilot were injured.

Big Bear Trip

Merle Metherell and Ben Acosta have just returned from a ten days' trip to Big Bear. This was made in a roadster belonging to Merle Metherell, which his friends call the "Skeleton." It is not known whether it was because of the frost or the scarcity of razors in that remote region, but these two young men returned bearing evidence of the beginning of slight mustaches. It was thought best to make mention of this fact so that their friends would not fail to recognize them. A very pleasant trip was reported, with hunting, fishing, camping and tramping through the snow furnishing plenty of outdoor entertainment.

Crawford; manager of parade arrangements, Clem Moore; marshal of the day, Dru Nicolas; publicity chairman, Joseph Griffin; chairman of decorating committee along the line of march, Dwight Stephenson; music for the parade and community singing, R. RECTOR STUDIOS

INSTITUTE OF MUSIC TO OPEN A BRANCH CONSERVATORY HERE

With the opening of the branch of the Rector Institute of Music Study in the Pearl Keller Studios, Glendale has acquired a real conservatory of music that is said to be the equal of the famed schools and conservatories of music to be found in the European cities.

For almost two years the Rector Studios have operated a branch in Hollywood at the Hollywood Woman's Club house, and during that time it has fully demonstrated its claims to the most efficient course in music ever offered in Southern California and perhaps in America.

With a corps of most able instructors, headed by Miss Elsa Breidt of this city, who is the supervising director of the piano department, the work accomplished by the Rector Institute is a surprise to those who have not closely followed the development of this enterprising institution. It is one of the very few, if indeed it is not the only organization of its kind, giving an unqualified guarantee as to the ability and knowledge of each and every one of its large staff of instructors.

To gain an adequate idea of the type of instructors employed we have merely to cite the selection of Miss Breidt as supervising director. She has achieved international distinction as a pianiste, having given recitals in most of the important cities of Europe and America, as well as appearing before many crowned heads in foreign lands, and so in each department of the Rector organization, from errand boy to the managing director and including its entire staff of instructors, each individual is a specialist selected on the records of their past achievements.

With such an organization as this in Glendale we may hope to see the artistic and cultural side of our community develop many artists worthy of our praise.

Compliments Glendale

Another addition to Glendale's population will be made when Mr. Gomes, an interior decorator famous for artistic work, will move his family from their San Diego home to one which he will build here in the Stepper tract.

Mr. Gomes has been working with Contractor Meline, of Hollywood, in the decorating of fine homes in that section. At present he is engaged in the decoration of a $65,000 home for a well-known moving picture star of the Hollywood colony.

In choosing Glendale for a place for his home, Mr. Gomes pays this city a high compliment, for he is thoroughly familiar with the undisputed charms of Hollywood and the appealing beauty of "The Harbor of the Setting Sun."

Among those who have recently elected to make their homes in Glendale is the Morgan family of Claremont, who have purchased the five-room house at the southeast corner of Glendale and Cypress avenues.

They expect to move to their new home very soon, and have planned many improvements in the house and grounds.

DE LA HUERTA ACTS TO PREVENT STRIKE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
MEXICO CITY, Nov. 10.—President De la Huerta acted promptly today to prevent a general strike in the federal district, voted last night amid cries of "Viva Russia!" The general strike was voted by the Communist Federation of the Mexican proletariat, representing seventeen of the most important labor unions, in sympathy with Vera Cruz dock strikers.

De la Huerta announced the government will take over the Vera Cruz dock, granting the demands of the stevedores.

COMPLICATIONS BETWEEN U. S. AND "REDS"

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, Nov. 10.—Complications between the United States government and the Bolsheviks were foreseen today as a result of the reported murder of Captain Emmet Kilpatrick of the Red Cross by "red" raiders. A dispatch from Sebastopol said Kilpatrick and two other Red Cross men were slain by Cossacks. Considerable doubt exists as to what action, if any, might be taken by the United States. Because of the fate of these three men, it is feared other Red Cross workers along the Russian front would be imperiled.

20 KOREANS KILLED; MISSION IS DESTROYED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
TOKIO, Nov. 10.—Twenty Koreans were killed, and a mission and school were destroyed by Japanese troops October 30, near Lung Tching Shun, Korea, according to a foreign office statement here today.

A BRIEF RESUME LEST WE FORGET

THAT GLENDALE RED CROSS CHAPTER HAS BEEN STRONG ORGANIZATION

TO MOVE NEWCOMERS

TO JOIN THE RANKS OF GLENDALE CHAPTER DURING PRESENT ROLL CALL

This being the season for the annual Roll Call of the Red Cross, it is meet and fitting that a resume of Glendale's chapter should be made, to the end that all of our citizens, especially newcomers, may be impressed with the noble work of this organization, and inspired to renew their memberships or to join the chapter, if they are not already members here.

Present officers of Glendale chapter are: Chairman, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett; vice-chairman, Ezra F. Parker; secretary, Mrs. John Robert White; treasurer, C. D. Lusby. The executive board consists of the above-named officers and Mrs. Don Campbell, Mrs. A. A. Barton, Mrs. Hartley Shaw.

Mrs. Arthur C. Brown is chairman of the Home Service department; Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward has been appointed by the chair to take charge of this year's Roll Call. Faithful and valuable service has been given the organization by many others besides those mentioned by name in this article and Glendale's chapter has always been a large and enthusiastic organization.

The idea of the formation of a Red Cross organization for Glendale was suggested to Mrs. H. E. Bartlett by the late Reverend C. Irving Mills, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, in March, 1917. Mrs. Bartlett presented the matter to the Tuesday Afternoon club at its next meeting, where it was favorably received.

Headlight Law

A force of Glendale police officers, working in conjunction with Los Angeles policemen and deputies from the sheriff's office, conducted a sweeping campaign against violators of the motor headlight law. In Glendale city 29 violators were tagged, not many of them residents, however. One or two of them had already been tagged in other places. The violations were of many kinds, such as no taillights, no headlights, a spotlight only, wrong kind of lenses and light globes of too high candle power. It has been the custom ever since the law was declared constitutional by the supreme court to conduct occasional raids of this kind, but it is intended from now on to make a systematic campaign against violators.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Barton have as their house guest Mr. Barton's mother, Mrs. Ellen Barton, of Freeland, Pennsylvania, who will spend the winter with them.

Dan Kelly, Sr., and several Eagle Rock friends made up a fishing party which motored to Santa Monica last evening. A fine run of smelt and herring is reported.

S. H. Malarkey has solved the high rent problem by purchasing the property at 326 West Doran street from Mr. Ranson. The sale was made through the Edwards & Wilkey Co.

Mrs. Sarah Alexander of 824 East Acacia avenue is enjoying a several weeks' visit in the old home, Dallas, Texas. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lucille Alexander, is looking after the home while she is away.

Reverend and Mrs. C. A. Cole, of Glendale Christian church, are attending the thirtieth annual convention of the Southern California Sunday School association in Pomona this week. Each of them has a part in the program.

Floyd Kenney, who was to appear before Judge Lowe for trial yesterday on a charge of driving an auto while intoxicated one day last week, was not present when his case was called, so his bail of $200 was declared forfeited.

While real estate business was somewhat at a lull prior to the presidential election, it has again resumed the briskness which characterized it before the campaign. Escrow departments of the various banks report little, if any, let-up in the transfer of property.

Mrs. Mary L. Payne, formerly of 105 North Central avenue, but who is now living in Bakersfield where her daughter, Miss Frances Payne, is teaching, is spending a few days here with relatives and friends. Mrs. Payne has rented her Central avenue home to a Mr. Browning until June, when she will return to Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. McLean of Detroit, Michigan, arrived in Glendale last week and are making their home with Mr. McLean's brother, R. L. McLean, of 745 East Wilson avenue, until they locate here permanently. Mr. McLean was in the real estate business in Detroit and may follow the same line here.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodroffe Paul and charming little daughter Edna May are among the recent newcomers to Glendale, they having arrived two weeks ago from Toronto, Canada, and purchased property at 316 Vine street. Mrs. Paul but recently returned from a trip to England, where she spent the summer.

One of the new real estate firms to open in Glendale this week is that of Harper & Craig. They will be located in room 4 of the First National Bank Bldg., corner Broadway and Brand boulevard. Mr. Craig is a contractor from Los Angeles, and the Glendale office will serve as a branch of his main office.

Miss Lottie Andrews of Memphis, Tennessee, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. P. J. Kuntzner, of 829 Ross St. Miss Andrews is in the west for the winter and will spend a week with her cousin. Mrs. Kuntzner also entertained Mr. and Mrs. H. Lafave of St. Louis, Missouri, over the weekend.

Miss Agnes Harrison, of 214 East Chestnut street, was the week-end guest of friends in Inglewood. The small son of the household in which she was visiting expressed the opinion of perhaps many other residents of Inglewood when he awoke, terrified by the severity of the electrical storm there Saturday night, with the remark that he much preferred an earthquake.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Mellus of 355 West Lexington Drive entertained Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Holohan of Portland, Oregon, at dinner last evening.

J. W. Lawson of Monrovia, formerly of Glendale, is in town today looking after business affairs and visiting old friends.

Mrs. Marjorie Condell of Chicago is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. W. Cunningham of West Sixth street. Mrs. Condell arrived Sunday night and plans to spend the entire winter in Southern California.

Jose Clores was arrested this morning at 1:15 at the corner of Brand and Broadway for driving a car while intoxicated. His car bore an Illinois license. He was locked up in the city jail to sober up.

The Romingers have moved from 241 South Orange to 426 West Park avenue; K. Treynor from 435 Patterson avenue to 310 West Windsor Road; E. W. Simmons to 313 West Harvard; H. H. Bevis to 470 Riverdale Drive.

W. T. Rogers and daughter of Los Angeles were visitors at the home of Mrs. Rogers' niece, Mrs. A. N. Allis, 471 Hawthorne street, Saturday evening. Miss Rogers has just recently returned from an extended visit through the Eastern and Central states.

Rev. C. M. Crist, who was formerly pastor of the Vincent Methodist church of Los Angeles, is rejoicing over the opportunity that has presented itself for having present in the Glendale First M. E. next Sunday evening a male quartette and two laymen speakers from his former church, who will assist in a special service.

D. Ruggiero, who sold the Glendale restaurant at 113 East Broadway about two months ago and went into the restaurant business in Fullerton, could not stay away from Glendale very long. Mr. Ruggiero has left a competent man in charge of his Fullerton business and has bought back his restaurant on East Broadway. He says "No place like Glendale."

J. H. Nash, who at one time was employed at the Ford factory at Detroit and who thoroughly understands the mechanism of that car, has opened a repair shop at his home, 211 West Park avenue. He says that he can do work cheaper and probably better than it can be done at many other places and still make good wages. He has a permanent card in today's News.

Quite a number of installations of electric light meters were ordered of the Public Service Department yesterday. The list included J. P. Strucher, 1608 Gardena Ave.; C. E. Tedford, 322 Salem; Dr. Martene, 312 W. Colorado; Rosa E. Herman, 441 W. Harvard; C. L. Edwards, 369 W. California Ave.; Mrs. Ella Richardson, residences at 214 W. Laurel and 1506 S. Central Ave.; G. A. Stanford, 405 Burnett.

Mrs. W. E. Grigg of 540 Fairmont avenue entertained Mrs. W. L. Andrews, Mrs. E. C. Smith, and Mrs. W. Porter at luncheon one day last week. Her home was artistically decorated with marigolds, which also formed the centerpiece for the dining table. The light fixtures over the table were twined with garlands of flowers, and the light globes were covered with yellow crepe paper. The afternoon was spent at cards.

James H. Rae, brother of Mrs. H. M. Miller of 202 East Elk avenue, arrives today from New York City. Mr. Rae has just returned from a year's stay in Scotland, where he has been visiting relatives. This is his first visit to Glendale, he having been here about twelve years ago, at which time he followed his line of work, which is sign painting and decorating. Mr. Rae expects to locate here permanently.

Now GLENDALE Has The FAMOUS MUSICAL COURSE—

Bringing the same unusual facilities to Glendale that have gained us such phenomenal success in our Hollywood branch studios, we announce the opening of a branch here to be located at the Pearl Keller Studios.

Our methods of instruction are unique—our entire course of study is founded on a scientific system that enables the students to acquire a sound basic knowledge of the essential fundamentals of music. Our course is easily understood by the youngest pupil. Our students become real musicians—not mere piano thumpers who do not know what they are doing or why they are doing it.

We teach the "grammar of music" just as you are taught the grammar of a language, because music is a language.

Furthermore, you are given an absolute guarantee that each and every one of our teachers are thorough musicians, that they have an absolute understanding and a complete knowledge of music. And, in addition, we guarantee our teachers to be competent instructors; qualified both as to temperament and knowledge.

Applications are now being received for enrollment in the Glendale branch. Our capacity for this season is limited, those desiring to register are requested to file their application immediately.

For further information phone Glendale 1377 or Glendale 322-J, or the executive offices in Los Angeles.

TO PREVENT FIRES

AND PROTECT HOMES IN FOOT-
HILLS, NEW APPARATUS
INSTALLED

For the purpose of forming a definite line of attack against brush and grass fires during the fire season extending from May to December, County Forester and Fire Warden S. J. Flintham is placing automobile fire-trailers at several points along the foothills.

These trailers are built of standard material and can be attached to any automobile, making it possible to rush fire-fighting materials to any point where a machine can be driven. Six standard fire extinguishers, eight galvanized iron water containers of five gallons each, shovels, mattocks and other tools are contained in the outfit.

A trailer has been placed at Flintridge, the subdivision of former U. S. Senator Frank P. Flint, and others are being negotiated for by J. Cramp-ton Anderson, who has large residential holdings in Sycamore canyon. It is the aim of the county fire warden to place these machines wherever individuals and communities co-operate with the county in the actual cost of the paraphernalia.

County Fire Warden Flintham is calling attention to the new county fire ordinance now in effect, which calls for the issuance of permits for the making of fires for the purpose of burning brush, grass and trash within defined distances from lands covered with inflammable material. Copies of this ordinance are being sent out from the warden's office to all those who are interested.

It Filled a Need

The action of the Glendale Realty Board in establishing an information bureau in the First National Bank is a commendable move; the bureau certainly fills a need.

Tourists and new residents are already beginning to discover and use this service, which is only three days old. Questions, various and diverse, have already begun to come in. Where does one pay a telephone bill? What is the address of Dr. ...? What is the mean temperature of Glendale? Who is the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce? What is the schedule of the Los Angeles cars? How high is Glendale? These are but a few of the questions that have been put to Miss Halvorson, the pleasant lady in charge of the information bureau.

"We want every one to feel free to use the bureau," said E. P. Hayward, secretary of the Realty Board; "our home people as well as tourists and new residents. Business men to whom newcomers apply for information are invited to refer them to the information bureau."

Correspondence concerning conditions in Glendale has also been already received.

Birthday Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Meckfessel of 417 North Kenwood entertained guests last evening at a birthday dinner given in honor of Mr. Meckfessel, who was seventy-one years of age. Table decorations were of pink and white, as was also the huge birthday cake bearing seventy-two candles. The entire house was decorated with chrysanthemums and other flowers. Those present were Mrs. J. E. Webb of St. Louis, a sister of Mrs. Meckfessel; Mr. and Mrs. John Bateman and Miss A. Bateman of Albuquerque, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. H. Van Graft of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Burn of Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. E. Enfield of New York City. The evening was spent in the playing of games, in which Mr. and Mrs. Meckfessel heartily joined.

Why spend Thanksgiving day cooking and washing dishes? Entertain your guests at the White Inn, and make your reservations now. If

Surprise Party

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Parker, of 221 North Central avenue, planned a real surprise last evening in honor of their 44th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Parker were the guests of Mrs. Lillian E. Dow, 226 West Chestnut street, at dinner last evening. While this was in progress the friends assembled at the Parker residence and all was in readiness when they returned home about eight o'clock. On their arrival the door was opened by Miss Jennie Cornwell and the lights suddenly turned on.

Mrs. Parker was showered with many lovely bouquets. A telegram of congratulation was read from Mr. and Mrs. Robt. T. Philp of Chicago, formerly of Glendale. A delicious wedding cake was received from Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Lyman of Santa Barbara. Mrs. Lyman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parker. The evening was spent at 500 and dancing. Dainty refreshments were served. The party dispersed about midnight. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Meeker, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. T. Allen, Miss Berry, Miss Jennie Cornwell, Mrs. V. E. Philp, Mrs. Lillian E. Dow, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Parker.

They are already making reservations for Thanksgiving dinner at the White Inn.

Charles Dean of Missouri is visiting his sister, Mrs. L. C. Brand of North Glendale.

Now that the election is over, perhaps the news from Russia will have another chance.

Does Your Laundress Ever Fail You?

Wash day morning and the laundress sends word that she cannot come, or worse still she fails to "show up."

That's the psychological time to give your family laundry service a trial. Just bundle up your soiled clothes, including table and bed linens, crepe de chine and silk lingerie, bedspreads, woolen blankets and the baby's dainty things.

Call us up and our wagon will shortly be at your door and when your bundle is returned you'll be mighty glad the laundress didn't come.

few minutes of community singing will be led by O. E. Von Oven.
This part of the program will be under the auspices of the American Legion boys. There will be no speaking, but only such ceremonies as the Legion may decide to hold.

People to March
It is desired that all who are able will march in the parade. The only autos wanted in this are the ones to convey people unable to walk and one each to represent the various civic and fraternal organizations taking part. The city trustees will be thus represented, the fire department and many orders. It is expected that these autos will be elaborately decorated and that there will be considerable friendly rivalry in this respect.

The line of march as given above will be subject to change as circumstances may suggest.

No Small Children
At the committee meeting last night it was deemed best to eliminate from the parade all children too small to march. It would require a long line of autos, and there would be an element of danger to these restless little bodies. For these reasons autos requisitioned for school children are released.

Afternoon Celebration
The football game in the afternoon on the high school athletic field promises to be an event of interest to many. The game is to be between Glendale High and Franklin High of Los Angeles.

The local nine expects the encouragement of a large turnout of Glendale Glens, and it is certain they will not be disappointed.

Business Houses to Close
Most of the business houses will close, at least during the parade, and many will be decorated for the occasion. This is an anniversary that should be observed as sacredly and with as much ceremony as Decoration Day or Fourth of July. It marks an epoch in world history, the close of the most stupendous war since the world began. That it ended happily for democratic institutions and the home was due to America's participation in the conflict and the resistless sweep of her civilian army when fairly engaged soon turned defeat into glorious victory. It is

WOODS SCHOOL

ADDS DEPARTMENT OF VIOLIN TO DANCING AND MUSIC COURSES

Mrs. Nanno Woods has pleasure in announcing that she has added a department of violin to her School of Music and Dancing, and has been so fortunate as to secure the services of Miss Bessie Chapin as teacher. Miss Chapin's charming personality and unusual talents are known to all music lovers. She has been engaged as solo violinist for the Philharmonic Course this season, and will appear before the Glendale Tuesday Afternoon club early in 1921. The Woods School now includes branches in ballroom dancing, fancy dancing, piano, elocution and violin, with four instructors. New class for beginners in fancy dancing starts Friday afternoon, Nov. 12; for beginners in ballroom dancing, Thursday evening, 7:30, Nov. 11. 122 W. Milford St., Glendale. Phone Glendale 394.

Interesting Luncheon

Very profitable and enjoyable was the Reciprocity Day luncheon of the Long Beach Music Study Club held in Chapel Hall at the "Queen of the Beaches" yesterday, as reported by Mrs. Charles Lee Marlenee, who attended as delegate from the Music Section of the Glendale Tuesday Afternoon Club.
A number of the federation officers gave inspiring addresses. Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, first vice president of the California Federation of Music Clubs, urged the organization of junior music study clubs, and the importance of this movement in the formation of the musical taste of young people and the refining effects upon their characters, as well as the consequent enriching of their lives. The luncheon was followed by a well chosen musical program by members of the Long Beach club.

Five Hundred Party

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Clarke of 351 Oak street entertained at 500 last evening. Bouquets of various colored chrysanthemums were used as decorations. Delicious refreshments were served. The occasion was in celebration of the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Clarke. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Justema, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Redmond, Mr. and Mrs. C. Alberts, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hitchcock and Mr. and Mrs. Warner of Los Angeles.

All Day Meeting

The Women's Auxiliary of the Congregational church held an all-day meeting today, with a luncheon at which Mrs. Charles M. Calderwood, wife of the new pastor, and her mother, Mrs. Hanscomb, were guests of honor.

most fitting, then, that in every city and hamlet in this great land of ours we celebrate this momentous event.

Announcement

Williams, the electrical contractor, wishes to thank the scores of Glendale people, who, by their patronage, have made possible the almost phenomenal growth of a business started only a month ago, and which, because of the scarcity of suitable store rooms, has been conducted under adverse conditions. Since Oct. 1, we have equipped more than 60 new homes for Electric Lighting, Heating, Electric Bells, etc., and we gratefully acknowledge that a large part of this business has come to us thru the "Boosting" of a satisfied clientele. From this date Mr. J. C. Haines will be associated with Mr. Williams, and the business will be conducted under the firm name of The Williams-Haines Electric Co. We will open our store at 616 East Broadway (opposite City Hall) about Nov. 17, with a full line of the Latest and Best in Electric Fixtures. We solicit your business on the basis of Square Dealing. If you wish to equip that new home with lighting fixtures that will enhance its beauty and value, it will pay you to look us up. That's all a safety deposit box at this bank will cost you and it is surely worth much more than that to you to know that your stocks, bonds, deeds, insurance policies and other valuable papers are in a safe place; that they are in no danger from fire and that an electrical burglar alarm protects them from the depredations of thieves.

ADVERTISING LAW

It is probable that one of the measures which will be proposed at the next session of Congress will be the enactment of a law against fraudulent advertising, aimed at the promoters of wildcat stock companies.

It is said by bankers, and agreed to by government representatives, that the public has been robbed of millions upon millions of dollars of savings during the past two years through the sale of worthless stocks. The government attempted to do what it could soon after the close of the war but without much avail. The Capital Issues Committee, which protected the public from worthless stocks during the war, disbanded and its services were no longer available; the postoffice could not police the country effectively with the force and means at its disposal, and so the work was finally turned over to the Federal Trade commission.

Efficient as the commission usually is in handling matters entrusted to it for disposal, it labored under a considerable handicap in this case, since there was much doubt as to its powers, and because it was already deeply engaged in important work.

The investors' protective bureau of the Chicago Association of Commerce reports that there are at least a billion dollars' worth of wildcat securities being offered to the public at the present time. One hundred twenty million dollars' worth of fraudulent stocks have been driven out of the state of Illinois alone this year and public confidence in securities, formerly at a very low ebb, has been greatly restored.

It is found, however, that the blue sky laws of the various states are not in themselves sufficient to cover the situation. There is a need, it appears, for a national law which will compel the promoter of securities to prove the statements in his copy before his advertising is given to the public.

The trouble with most of the laws aimed at fake stock promoters is that they do not operate until the swindler has fleeced a number of victims. The thing that is needed is a law that will lock the door before the horse is stolen and there is good reason to believe that a national advertising law will fit the situation.—Dearborn Independent.

A BRIEF RESUME

son, March 1917, which was attended by Mrs. Hutchinson, president of the P. T. A. federation; Miss Ina Whitaker, secretary of the British Ambulance society; Rev. E. H. Willisford, pastor of the Congregational church; Rev. C. Irving Mills, rector of St. Mark's; Rev. V. H. Cowser, pastor of the Baptist church, and Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club, and a Red Cross organizer from Los Angeles, Mr. Webb. It was decided at this conference to call a mass meeting at the High School to form a Red Cross organization. This mass meeting took place April 5, 1917, and an organization was effected. It was a branch of the Los Angeles chapter until July 17, 1917, at which time a charter for an independent chapter for Glendale was obtained.

The following officers served the branch and later the chapter: John Hyde Braly, chairman from the time of organization until November, 1918, when the present chairman, Mrs. Bartlett, was elected. Rev. T. F. McCrea was vice-chairman from May 23, 1917, to January 2, 1918.

The late A. L. Lawshe served as vice-chairman from January 2, 1918, to June 4, 1918, when business called him back east. Olin Spencer served as acting vice-chairman in his absence. In November, 1918, Ezra F. Parker was elected vice-chairman, and is still serving in that capacity.

Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker served as secretary from the beginning of the Red Cross work here until June, 1918. Mrs. Harry Duffield from that date until December, 1918. Mrs. John Robert White, Jr., the present secretary, has served since December, 1918.

C. D. Lusby is the present treasurer; previous to November, 1918, F. H. Vesper had served in that capacity.

Besides these officers, many citizens have given of their time and strength to the work of various committees. These committees and their chairmen especially have done commendable work in promoting the efficiency of the chapter and in interesting new members.

The Junior Red Cross was organized in January, 1918. It is under the able supervision of Richardson D. White, supervising principal of Glendale city schools.

You'll be thankful if you decide not to cook a big dinner this year, but instead take your family and guests to the White Inn.

THE OLD STATUS OF EGYPT

In connection with the proposed epoch-making change, both Englishmen and Egyptians may well review the history of recent years in its bearing on the present situation.

A generation ago, in the interests of civilization, it became necessary for England and France, financially and economically, to administer the Egyptian government. When, however, it came to a question of armed interference to deliver Egypt from anarchy, France was unready and England performed the task alone, standing in the capacity of trustee for creditors of her own and other countries.

During the forty years which have elapsed, England has accomplished in Egypt perhaps the most astounding colonial advance ever made. First, she has raised the Fellahin—the lowest rank of the people—as well as all of the population, not only materially but morally, to a far better condition than they ever have been in. Second, she has rehabilitated the agricultural possibilities in the Nile Valley and has transformed Egypt into one of the world's granaries. Third, she has practically stamped out both local and national maladministration. And fourth, and by no means least, she has delivered Egypt from the blight of Turkish misrule. What this has been is dramatically described in two epoch-making books—Slatin Pasha's "Fire and Sword in the Sudan" and Lord Cromer's "Egypt."

After England declared war on Turkey in 1914, the Egyptian ruler, the Khedive, who happened to be in Constantinople, took the part of the Turkish Sultan and tried to draw Egypt after him. The British deposed the Khedive, conferred the title of Sultan of Egypt upon his brother, and declared Egypt a British protectorate.

Though Egypt has been nominally under British sovereignty, and the tie very slight, the final rupture with Turkey alienated some Egyptian Mohammedans who regarded the Turkish Sultan as their Khalif, or priestly leader. The other Egyptians took the change with comparative equanimity. But the Nationalist propaganda worked with increased momentum.

If Great Britain can keep up as much as possible of her old support though under a new name, the Egyptian Nationalists may possibly do fairly well with their new freedom. Doubtless they intend to do well. It may take a sharp lesson, however, to teach them that Egypt, if left to stand completely alone, can neither protect her frontiers against external aggression nor give guaranty for a strong and impartial government at home.

Alabama night riders who used a church as the base of their incendiary operations, probably regard themselves as engaged in a holy war.

Forty-two stowaways were found on one ship on its arrival at New York. Where the passengers were quartered is not stated.
